

HAVE A PEACEFUL HOLY SATURDAY

Today we rest!

Today the Lord enters the underworld to crush the power of death and bring all those who were faithful to God before Christ was born into the Kingdom of Glory.

Today Christ brings to our world the power of the fullness of God.

He brings victory over sin

He reminds us that nobody is a mediocrity because, as the poet Patrick Kavanagh said, 'God only makes geniuses'.

He brings LIFE, and brings it in all its fullness

He will rise at the Dawn and, in doing so, cause us to rise with Him.

The power of His life is here and now.

Let us delight in that, in Him and in one another for

He is Risen and Life is ours

Alleluia, Alleluia!
