Jesus, I Trust in You

Divine Mercy Sunday is a celebration of God's boundless mercy and love. The phrase "Jesus I Trust in You" encapsulates the essence of our faith - surrendering to God's plan and trusting in His infinite mercy. As we reflect on this theme, we are reminded of the story of St. Faustina, who experienced profound encounters with Jesus, revealing the depth of His mercy.

Jesus' message of mercy is for everyone - "I desire trust from you... offer me your misery, and I will fill you with My grace." This trust is not about feelings, but a choice to rely on God's goodness, even when circumstances seem tough. In a world filled with uncertainties, this trust is both a challenge and a comfort.

How can you embody "Jesus I Trust in You" this week? Maybe it's through prayer, service to others, or letting go of burdens you have held onto. Jesus' promise is clear: "In the hour of your death, I will be your Life." Let this Divine Mercy Sunday be a fresh start to deepen your trust in Him.

Parish news

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you!

Our Easter celebration was truly blessed, and that is because of you. From the beautiful liturgies and music to the flowers that adorned the church, to the many hands that set up, served, and cleaned the churches with joy. Your time, talents, and presence made the Resurrection of the Lord come alive for our whole parish family.

I am also deeply grateful to you all for the many Easter cards, prayers, and generous gifts that you gave to me especially during this season. Your thoughtfulness and kindness are a great encouragement. Please know that each note and gift was received with heartfelt appreciation. Kindly note that I will be taking a short break from Monday, April 13 through Friday, April 17 to rest and spend time in prayer. I look forward to being back for the weekend pastoral activities of the Third Sunday of Easter.

Thank you again for making this a joyful and grace-filled Easter. May the peace of the Risen Christ remain with you and your families throughout this Easter season. Be assured of my prayers and remain blessed. Fr Lawrence

Easter Raffle

Thank you all for your generous donations to the raffle by means of prizes and purchasing tickets. It was drawn on Easter Sunday and prizes have been distributed to the winners.

Website and Photographs

Our Parish website is constantly being updated to reflect our Parish. We would like to include photographs here. We will hopefully photograph more of our Parish events. Please speak with a member of the Parish Council if you would prefer to be edited out of any pictures used online.

Divine Mercy Devotion and Station of the Cross

Every Friday @ 12:30pm after the Holy Mass at 12:00pm in Our Lady Star of the Sea, Burry Port. All are invited.
