THE LORD HAS RISEN!

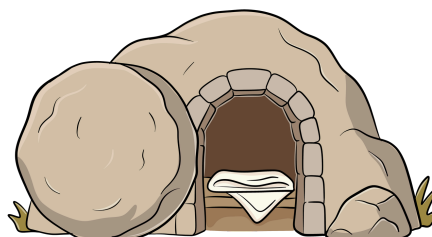

The stone was rolled away, and the tomb was empty. Jesus conquered death, just as He promised. We celebrate this victory with joy and hope, knowing our own stories are wrapped in His. We rejoice and are glad, we make merry for we have reasons. He is our Lord and saviour.

The resurrection changes everything. Fear turns to courage, sorrow turns to joy, and death turns to life. Like the disciples who went from hiding to proclaiming boldly, we are called to share this good news. Reach out and share the joy of Easter for the Lord has risen.

He has risen, and He is with us still. In our struggles and triumphs, Jesus is alive, working all things for our good. Let us walk in the light of His resurrection, sharing love and hope with all. We are the Easter people and Alleluia is our song.

Happy Easter beloved parishioners!
