Love Before Time

God is not alone. From all eternity, the Father gives Himself to the Son, and the Spirit is the living bond of that self-giving. Three Persons, one Being. The Trinity reveals that relationship is not something God does; it is what God is. Communion is not added to God; it is His very nature.

This changes everything for us. We were made in the image of this communion, and in Christ we are brought into it. Baptism plunges us into the Name Father, Son, Spirit. So our fractured lives can share in God's own unity. We are not spectators of the Trinity. We are invited to live from within it.

So today we do not solve a mystery. We rest in one. Every time we make the sign of the cross, we re-enter the home of God: beloved by the Father, united to the Son, breathed upon by the Spirit. That is our origin, our healing, and our destiny.

Happy Trinity Sunday.

A note of Gratitude – Pentecost OLSC, Kidwelly.

Dear Parish Family,

My heartfelt thanks to everyone who came to our joint Pentecost Mass at Kidwelly. It was a beautiful sign of our unity in the spirit - different communities, one body, one breath of God filling the Church.

A special congratulations to Michael and Clara on receiving the sacraments of Baptism and first Holy Communion. What a Pentecost gift for us all! May the Father claim you as His own, the Son walk with you always and the Spirit set your hearts on fire.

Praying God's rich blessings on each of you and your families. God willing, we look forward to gathering again in the same spirit next year.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Blessings,

Fr Lawrence.
